SIR:

The Examiner's "Statement of Reasons For Allowance" included at page 2 of the Notice of Allowability dated August 11, 2005 states that "thus [the] gain function is invariant by change of frequencies."

Applicant notes, however, that independent Claim 1 does not recite such a limitation. This comment is merely intended to point out the exact wording of the allowed claims.

Respectfully submitted,

OBLON, SPIVAK, McCLELLAND,
